Tuesday 4th October, 2011 Royal Society, London
How can the UK compete effectively for clinical R&D?

09.00-09.30 Registration and coffee

09.30-09.50 The UK life sciences environment
An overview of the key data on UK life sciences and how the UK is responding.
Professor Tim Higenbottam, Director of Corporate Clinical Development at Chiesi Farmaceutici

09.50-10.45 How can the UK compete effectively?
How do we compare to the rest of Europe and Asia? A panel of Key opinion leaders debate initiatives that have been implemented and what needs to be addressed to move forward.
Mike Stevens, Acting Director, Chief Scientist Office, Scottish Government Health
Tony Soteriou, NIHR
Dr Robert Frost, Policy Manager, The Academy of Medical Sciences
Geraldine Brown, Head of Clinical Research AstraZeneca UKMC

10.45-11.15 Tea & Networking

11.15-11.45 Value based pricing – How does this impact clinical trials
How is value based pricing going to impact clinical trials?
Paul Catchpole, Director of Communications, ABPI

11.45-12.15 Personalised medicine – implications and the road ahead.
Sir Gordon Duff

12.15-13.15 Lunch & Networking

13.15-14.00 Sharing success – collaboration in clinical R&D
Nottingham University Hospital discuss how partnerships have transformed R&D at Nottingham
Dr Maria Koufali, Deputy Director Research & Innovation, Nottingham University Hospitals NHS Trust.
The Christie Hospital discuss their collaboration with industry. An opportunity to understand the challenges they faced and key learning's.
Angela Ball, R&D Manager, The Christie NHS Foundation Trust
ACCORD—a partnership between the University of Edinburgh and NHS Lothian Health Board talk to us about the first joint Research Framework Agreement in Scotland
Dr Christine Phillips, Deputy R&D Director, NHS Lothian

14.00-14.30 Trials and tribulations - Why data transparency is necessary but may not be sufficient to ensure the integrity of medical knowledge
Dr Fiona Godlee, Editor in Chief, BMJ

14.30-15.00 Tea & Networking

15.00—15.30 Research in primary care: are we about to miss the boat?
Having successfully increased involvement in research in primary care in North Lancashire by 600%. Rosalind will demonstrate the capacity for research that can be unleashed in primary care and argue for industry and research designers to refocus their attentions.
Rosalind Way, Head of the Lancashire and Cumbria HIEC, Research, Innovation and Development

15.30-16.20 Clinical R&D – A Chief Executive view
A number of Chief Executives from NHS and Industry share their views on how to make clinical R&D a priority for your Chief Executive.
Julie Moore, Chief Executive, University Hospitals Birmingham NHS Foundation Trust
Mark Hackett, Chairman & Chief Executive, Southampton University Hospitals Trust
Bob Bell, Chief Executive, Royal Brompton & Harefield NHS Foundation Trust
Mr John Matthews, Acting Director of Industry, NIHR Clinical Research network

Our Chair Person is Dr Mark Edwards. Mark is a medically-qualified and experienced drug developer, formerly being a Clinical R&D Director and then Director of Science and Medical Public Affairs at Pfizer.

For further information please go to http://www.events4healthcare.com/CD_Conference_2011.html or email enquiries@clinicaldiscovery.com or call 0844 824 6686