

together, we're better

'From Bench to Bedside'
A One Day Conference on Clinical Trials
Thursday 17th January 2013
Institute of Life Science
College of Medicine, Swansea University

09:30	Registration and Coffee Refreshments also available throughout the day at the rear of the room	ILS1 Reception and Atrium
10:00	Opening Address	Professor Keith Lloyd, Head and Dean College of Medicine, Swansea University
10:10	Setting the Scene	Professor Steve Bain, Professor of Medicine (Diabetes) & Assistant Medical Director for Research & Development
10:15	Morning Session Chaired by Prof. Marc Clement, Professor of Innovation
10:20	Key issues in clinical trial supplies	John Roberts, Commercial Director, Penn Pharmaceuticals
10:50	Clinical Evaluation of a Blood Glucose Meter	Dr. Stephen Luzio, Reader in Diabetes, Swansea University
11:20	Commercial Value of Clinical Trials	ILS Client Organisation Case study
11:50	Health Research Wales: Support for SMEs	David Powell, NISCHR AHSC Lead Industry Manager
12:20	Q&A plus	Morning Speakers
12:30	Lunch and Tours	ILS2 Hub
13:30	Afternoon Session Chaired by Professor Steve Bain
13:40	Novo Nordisk and Swansea – a clinical trial collaboration	Dr. Paul Chester, Clinical Research Manager, Novo Nordisk
14:25	JCRF 'Accessing the NHS for Research' Facilities	Lisa Bastin, Joint Clinical Research Facility Manager, and Paola Griffiths, Superintendent Radiographer, ILS
	Process & Permissions	Jemma Hughes, R&D Manager ABMU Health Board, Roy Evans, Chairman of South West Wales Research Ethics Committee, and Prof. Ian Russell, Professor of Clinical Trials
15:25	Q&A	Afternoon Speakers
15:35	Closing Remarks	Professor Clement and Professor Bain
15:45	Appointment desk open in JCRU for booking first free hour	JCRF Office, ILS2

The Institute of Life Science is supported by Welsh Government and the European Union

