

3rd RCSEd Wales Surgical-Team Conference 2018
Survive and Thrive in NHSWales: Lessons Learnt from Inside and Out
 Margam Park Orangery, Friday 26th October 2018

Time	Title	Presenter
08:30	Registration and Refreshments 'Quality Improvement Poster Wall' Viewing	RCSEd & 1000Lives+ 'Promoting QI in Wales'
09:15	Welcome	Mr Steven Backhouse - ENT Surgeon and Surgical Director of RCSEd Advisor Network
Made in Wales: Initiatives to benefit NHSWales?
09:20	Cure the NHS: patient input to change NHS culture	Julie Bailey , Patient Advocacy Services
09:50	Resilience and the RCSEd Specialist Undermining and Bullying Training in the Workplace Course	Prof. Andy McCann, DNA Definitive
Made in England: Initiatives to benefit NHSWales?
10:20	Learning from Deaths Guidance: The personal impact of losing a loved one through bad NHS practice'	Dr Josephine Ocloo, Health Foundation Improvement Science and Q Fellow, King's College London
10:50	Comfort Break
11:05	Freedom to Speak Up Guardians – supporting all workers to speak up	Mr Russell Parkinson, Head, National Guardian's office Ms Sonia Pearcey, Ambassador for Cultural Change, Gloucestershire Care Services NHS Trust
The Surgeon and the Law
11:35	Negotiating your way through a GMC enquiry: A personal experience, reflections and learnings	Mr Barry Appleton, Consultant GI surgeon
12:05	Keynote Lecture: What role the law? Paterson and others.	Prof. Sir Ian Kennedy QC, University College London
12:35	Summary and Close	Mr Steven Backhouse
12:45	End of morning conference

With thanks to our conference supporters:

Cymru Wales